

Heat Stress Education

With recurring hot weather it is important to provide heat illness prevention training. You can download the Heat Stress information card here. CAWG can provide you with an PDF copy via e-mail or a limited number of printed cards for copying and distribution. Please contact the CAWG office at: (800) 241-1800 or via e-mail: info@cawg.org This email address is being protected from spam bots, you need Javascript enabled to view it .
