

Grower Membership

The California Association of Winegrape Growers (CAWG), founded in 1974, represents the interests and concerns of wine and concentrate grape growers. CAWG advocates for its members on governmental, legislative and policy issues within the industry. CAWG's grower members are California growers of grapes for wine or grape juice concentrate.

Benefits of Grower Membership

- Legislative Representation

- Contract Negotiations and Considerations for the Winegrape Grower

- Annual Winegrape Marketing Guide

- The Crush, CAWG's newsletter

- Workers' Compensation Safety Group

- Federal Multi-Peril Crop Insurance

- Group Medical Benefits

- Support of Public Information Programs

- Publication Discounts

- Winegrape Growers of America

- Industry Affiliations

- Unified Wine & Grape Symposium

- Winegrape Industry Reception/Banquet

- CAWG's Annual Meeting

- Members get $100 off The Gomberg-Fredrikson Report, A monthly publication covering California wine shipments with commentary about imported wines and wine industry economics.

Download order form (PDF, 229K) for The Gomberg-Fredrikson Report

Annual Dues

- $4.75 per acre annually

- Minimum annual dues $150.00

Apply for Grower Membership

Download the Applications

-

Download the Membership Application and Membership Agreement

Grower Membership Application

Fill out and mail to:

CAWG

1325 J Street Suite 1560

Sacramento, CA 95814

If you use your Visa or MasterCard you may also fax in your application to: (916) 379-8999

Contact CAWG

Contact CAWG for more information or to have the applications mailed to you:

- Email info@cawg.org

- Call 1 (800) 241-1800